(a) whether the States are required to seek the consent of the Central Government under Article 293(3) of the Constitution of India for raising loans;

(b) what are the main restrictions with the Central Government require to be complied with by the State Governments

(c) the major restriction that have been imposed by the Central Government with regard to investment of cash balance of the States;

(d) whether there is any proposal of total loan limit in place of the condition of consent as prescribed under Article 293(3) of the Constitution of India: and

(e) the total loan limit fixed for each of the States in the year 2006-2007?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) GoI has been fixing annual borrowing ceiling of the States as part of a process of restructuring of States finances to achieve fiscal sustainability over Medium Term. TFC in its report has also suggested than there is a need to ensure that the ceiling for annual borrowing prescribed for each State is consistent with the sustainability requirement of each State.

(c) No restriction have been imposed by the Central Government with regard to investment of cash balance of the States.

(d) and (e) Borrowing ceiling of each State for the year 2006-07 given in the enclosed Statement.
